

Overview of Chicago Grows Food

CHICAGO GROWS FOOD

Chicago Grows Food is a collaborative project devoted to expanding and unifying the food growing community in Chicagoland. Our mission is to creatively connect advocates for safe and environmentally-conscious food production, land stewardship, food access, food security, and nutrition to catalyze and sustain equitable and holistic health outcomes for the communities of Chicago.

Collaborators

HEALTHY SCHOOLS CAMPAIGN

openlands
conserving nature for life

Founding Partners

- AM Root Builders
- The Autobarn
- Big Green Chicago
- Center for Urban Transformation
- Chicago Partnership for Health Promotion
- The Egan Office
- Stein Learning Gardens at St. Sabina
- UI Health

IRWIN W. STEANS CENTER
FOR COMMUNITY-BASED SERVICE LEARNING & COMMUNITY SERVICE STUDIES

We are so thankful to these organizations and individuals for their support and dedication to Chicago Grows Food